04 Do you support the use of property tax dollars for the downtown office-to-residential conversions? Why or why not?

Calgary's downtown matters, but not at the expense of families in the Northeast. Ward 5 already pays high taxes while facing aging infrastructure and safety concerns. Downtown projects like office conversions should use private, provincial, and federal funding, not local tax dollars, to ensure fair and responsible investment citywide.

05 Do you believe the City of Calgary has a climate plan that will cost $87 billion in city tax dollars to implement?

Yes

✓ No

06 When was the last time you participated in a city council meeting in person?

I haven't participated in city council in person.

07

What role should the City of Calgary play in dealing with mental health and addiction?

Mental health and addiction affect every part of our city. Families in Ward 5 see it every day. The City must take a supportive role, partnering with Alberta Health Services, Calgary Police, and community organizations to connect people with real help instead of criminalizing those who need support.

08

When you are making promises at the doors, are you informing voters on where the money will come from or what you will cut to make it happen?

✓ Yes.

No.

Statement: The City of Calgary should continue building new communities on its outer fringe. Agree or disagree and why?

I believe we must strike a balance. Families need affordable housing, and many find that in newer communities. But rapid growth without proper infrastructure creates long-term problems, overcrowded roads, limited transit, and delayed city services.

No downtown Green Line

What role should the City of Calgary play, if any, in ensuring there is adequate, affordable starter housing stock, or rentals available for young Calgarians?

Young people in Ward 5 work hard and save, yet still feel locked out of owning a home. The City must speed up permits, cut red tape, and build near transit and jobs. We need real starter homes and affordable rentals without extra fees that raise costs for families.

What would you do to improve the City of Calgary's public engagement?

The City requires public consultation before major plans, but many residents still feel unheard. Engagement often happens too late or is not accessible to everyone. I will push for earlier, clearer, and more inclusive engagement in multiple languages, both online and in person, so residents can easily share their views. People deserve to see how their feedback shapes decisions. Real engagement means listening first, acting with transparency, and building trust between City Hall and the community.
